

Bid for the 2009 SW Region SchH Championships
San Diego San Diego Diensthund Club

1. about 10-15min from the field
2. very nice ploughed dirt

field:

1. nice grass (baseball field)
2. fully fenced
3. fully lighted (depending on the weather and the need for an evening trial)

judge:

1. jim elder has committed to judging (the other judge is pending)

misc:

1. we will have a regional website
 2. for more infor about the club, you can visit the club website at www.sandiegodiensthund.com
 3. for the meeting, we will either have it at the host hotel conference room, or at a restaurant
 4. judges dinner will depend on food preference of the judges. there are several very nice/good places in san diego--lots of options for ethnic foods, steak, seafood etc.
 5. the field is about 15 min away from the airport (san diego international)
- Note: the club has hosted several large trials (including the regionals several years back) that have included many of this region's handlers, and we are very excited to have the opportunity to host the regionals. we look forward to seeing many of our old dog friends, some great training/handling and making this event fun and successful!!
